Many Waban Residents at Hearing Before Aldermen on Wilde Rd. Drain

City To Construct Drain With Cost To Abuttors Not To Exceed $4.50 Per Foot

Residents on Wilde, Alban and Varick roads in Waban came to Newton City Hall for the fourth time in recent months on Monday night to attend a hearing on the matter of building a drain to prevent more floods on Wilde road. This drain and the improving of these streets has been one of the difficult problems facing the Aldermen the past year. Wilde road has been flooded several times within the past 12 months and such a condition would result after every heavy storm. To prevent further floods it will be necessary to construct a drain which must go under the Cochituate aqueduct to empty into the Charles River. This drain will go under Varick, Quineboquin, Alban and Wilde roads and will be a very expensive piece of work. The Aldermen decided that inasmuch as water from Varick and Alban roads drain into Wilde road, property owners on the first two streets must join with those on Wilde road in paying betterment assessments for part of the cost of the drain; the city to bear much of the cost because the work can be regarded to a degree as a necessary public improvement. The residents of Varick and Alban roads contended that property owners on other streets also drains into Wilde road. Some of them were willing to pay part of the cost of the drain, provided that the appointment of Dr. W. G. Smillie, 259 Wamestir ond, Waban as a member of the Board of Health, and the reappointment of Dr. W. G. Smillie, 259 Wamestir ond, Waban as a member of the Board of Health, and the reappointment of Dr. W. G. Some of the were willing to pay part of the cost of the drain, provided that the streets will be improved and accepted.

At the hearing on Monday night, Charles J. Cawley, of 101 Alban road, opposed the proposed improvements and reminded the Aldermen that at a recent meeting it had been promised that the work of building the drain would be done without assessments being levied on property owners. that the work of building the drain would be done without assessments in being levied on property owners. Robert E. Wells of 76 Alban road opposed the acceptance of the street and its improvement, contending that this change will not benefit his property. He stated that the present plans call only for the improving of part of the road and as a result residents on nearby streets will use that part of Alban road adjoining his property as an approach to and from Beacon street, and the increased traffic will endanger his small children. He said that only a few will be assessed and that many others will benefit by the improvement without paying any of the cost.

and that many others will be assessed the improvement without paying any of the cost.

E. Nillsen of Mossfield road said the drain is a necessity, but the city should assume the cost, and it is an imposition to assess persons who are not directly benefited. He favored the improving and acceptance of the streets in his neighborhood, but would object to any assessment if only the drain will be built. Alderman Murray, chairman of the Public Works Committee, informed the Wabanites that the drain will be built and Wilde, Varick and Alban roads improved and accepted and the cost to the abuttors will not exceed $4.55 per running foot. This explanation was satisfactory to most of the property owners concerned.

Newton Red Cross To Elect Officers

At Annual Meeting Of Local Chap-

At the Annual Meeting of the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, held October 28th, at 12 Austin St., Newtonville, the following officers were elected: Chairman, Mr. Donald Angier; Vice-Chairman, Mr. Thomas Gorham; Treasurer, Mr. Joseph B. Jamieson, Jr.; Secretary, Mrs. James Dunlop.

At the meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night the sum of $2500 was appropriated to start the work of purifying Newton water. A machine will be purchased which will mix soda ash with the water as it passes through the pumping station at Newton Upper Falls. Soda ash will be mixed with Newton water to minimize the amount of carbon-dioxide prevalent in the liquid supplied to the people of Newton and make it aqua pura.

For many years Newton boasted of its water, which was obtained from a storage reservation located along the Charles River at Needham, south of Kendrick Bridge. The water, filtered through gravel strata, drained into two large artesian wells and into a long wooden conduit. It was pumped either directly into the mains, or into a covered reservoir on the summit of Waban Hill. This water, not coming from a river or lake, and not being stored in an open reservoir, was harder than the usual water, and excellent for drinking purposes.

Some years ago, due to the growth of this city, it became necessary to use considerable water from the Metropolitan Water System, especially during the summer months. As a result, many complaints began to pour in from Newton residents regarding the water supplied to their homes. The Metropolitan water is soft and acted as a solvent. It loosened from the big wooden conduit at the water reservation at Needham, and from the water mains throughout this city large deposits of crenothrix which grows in ponds, reservoirs and water mains, and it imparts a disagreeable odor and taste to water, as well as discoloring it. Measures were taken to free Newton water from this impurity. A crew of Water Department employees spent weeks scraping thick deposits of chrenothrix off the interior of the long wooden conduit at the water reservation. A large sum of money was appropriated to have the larger water mains in all sections of the city reamed by a patented device so that deposits would be removed. A new artesian well was dug at the water reservation to increase the supply, Goriam; Treasurer, Mr. Joseph B. Jamieson, Jr.; Secretary, Mrs. James Dunlop.

Meeting of Directors

At the meeting of Directors
At the meeting of the Board of Directors held on Tuesday evening, reports showed that membership at the Newton "Y" was almost as large as any time in the history of the association. This desirable result has been brought about by the efficient work of the Membership Committee and by the willingness of members and secretaries to speak to their friends about joining.

Mr. Edward J. Frost has been chosen as Chairman and Mr. William F. Chase as Treasurer of the Trus-Meeting of Directors

Two Hallowe'en Parties were in order for the boys of the Newton Y.
M. C. A. during the past week. On Thursday night the Employed Boys' Class met at 7:00 for a period of games until time for the regular swim at 7:45. Part of the swimming period was given over to candle races and egg and spoon races. After the swim, the group again met around the fire place for stories and refreshments.

The Junior Hallowe'en Party which was held on Friday night was planned by Marvin B. Perry, Jr., Harold Murphy and Arthur Taylor, and it proved to be one of the most successful parties ever held in the Boys' Division. As each member was checked, he was conducted to the Hi-Y Club Room where a ghost greeted him and started him on his journey through the ghost walk, where skeletons, devils, and ghosts aided him in reaching the room where games were in order. "Nipper" Jones and Louis Carter proved to be the best racers by winning the prizes offered. After a period of games, the boys were given their locker keys and enjoyed a special swim while the refreshments were being made ready. On Saturday afternoon Harold Murphy proved to be the best Ping Pong player in the Boys' Division by taking first place in the Ping Pong Tournament.

HOOD'S Grade A Milk is made to meet the baby's specifications. That's why Babies thrive

If you knew the infinite pains and care we use in producing and pasteurizing this fine milk you would understand why babies and children like it and thrive so well on it. Fine, fresh milk from rugged, healthy animals, housed in clean barns, properly fed and milked with sanitary care.

If you could follow Hood's Grade A Milk on its hurried trip from the farm to your door and see the delicate care and protection it receives, you would insist on Hood's Grade A always.

GRIEVANCE REMAINS

One of our valued correspondents who has taken an active part in criticisims of the way the huge water pipes have been laid in the city, has written us again. After suggesting the great danger of a possible break in the mains he goes on to say:

"Aside from that, however, the grievance remains that the City of Newton has allowed its main thoroughfare to be torn up for months, inconveniencing its citizens and others, endangering life and property from restricted traffic, detours, excavations, etc., and we have absolutely nothing to show for it, except the surface of Washington Street, which is worse now than it ever was before. This street should be renamed Washboard Street. But if you don't believe we have good streets in Newton, go and look at our new City Hall."

The mayor and aldermen certainly had the opportunity the past week to adopt a "reasonable regulation" regarding the delay in filling the trench after the huge water mains had been laid. We refer specifically to the open trench for about a half mile near the Newtonville fire station. There has been consequent annoyance to the traveling public, by reducing the width of the street and by preventing the parking of automobiles on the south side of the street. Our city fathers have been derelict in their masterly inaction on this matter.

One of the most annoying, although, possibly a minor practice of the so-called celebration of Hallowe'en, is the use of bean blowers. These devilish articles are usually used by children ten or twelve years of age who do not realize that broken eyeglasses or loss of eyesight may be the result of their thoughtlessness. Parents of such children should be responsible for their actions.

The damage caused on Thursday morning by a runaway truck with a platform trailer carrying a steam shovel, should be a lesson to the authorities who allowed this unwieldy machine to use our streets. It was a fortunate chance that no one was injured as this Juggernaut plunged down Church

BUSINESS MEN MEET

The November meeting of the Newton Business Associates was held last evening at the Hunnewell Club. A roast beef dinner was served.
Harry Mahoney, president of the Cambridge Business Association told how Central Square had been built up as a shopping centre and what had been done to induce people to do their buying there.

The parking committee reported that Mayor Weeks had told them that if he continues in office next year he will take steps toward affording some relief for parking needs at Newton Corner.

It was suggested by some of the members that the assessed valuation on business blocks in Newton be lowered so that rents might be reduced.

One would not suppose that New-ton is a wealthy city to see the huge wagon that is used to collect papers and rubbish at Newton Corner and Newtonville. Two handsome bay and enlisting all the strong men of horses draw this wagon, but the vehicle itself would give one the impression that Newton is bankrupt. It is falling apart and hasn't been painted for such a length of time that it looks like a barn on a deserted farm.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

An anonymous communication suggests that this column suspend all other concerns, large and small, and say something about the police department and its failure to recover some lost property which the unknown writer appears to have had stolen from him. The letter is a trifle vague in setting forth the circumstances. It, however, suggests that I "get after them." If it be that I am expected to hunt for missing articles I must deciline. On the other hand, if it is intended that the police be made the subject of criticism I am willing to consider the matter. onsider the matter.

The fact that a man has successfully passed the civil service tests and is dressed in a uniform and equipped with certain tools such as a revolver, badge, handcuffs and club does not mean he has the gift of super-knowledge in detecting crime. Experience in dealing with law-breakers gives the officers a knowledge of the habits of thieves, particularly in cases of petty larceny. Also a policeman has an ac-

He might just as well have said it to the fish beneath him. Finally he walked over and demanded that the game cease and the players show some interest in their surrounddings. "O. go away," snapped the players in unison, "can't you see we're busy."

A Lecture on Christian Science

PAUL A. HARSCH, C.S.B., of Toledo, Ohio

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The Firs Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

In the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse on Monday Evening, November 2nd and in The Christian Science Church, Newtonville, on Tuesday Evening, November 3rd Entitled

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE: The Road of Spiritual Achievement

A Free Public Lecture on Christian Science by Paul A. Harsch, C.S.B., of Toledo, Ohio, was given under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton on Monday evening, November 2d. in the Newton Centre Woman's Club House, Newton Centre, and on Tuesday evening, November 3d, in the Church editice. Walnut and Otis Sts., Newton ville.

At the Newton Centre Woman's Club House, the lecturer was intro-Stub House, the lecture

viile.

At the Newton Centre Woman's Club House, the lecturer was introduced by the Second Reader of the Church, Mrs. Helen P. Lawrence, who spoke as follows:

Christ Jesus said, "I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever." Christian Science has proved itself to be the Comforter to me for the past twenty-five years. Its healing ministrations have brought comfort again and again in times of sickness and of sorrow.

Christian Science teaches one how to think Christ-like thoughts, and how to think Christ-like thoughts, and how to think Christ-like thoughts, and how to live a Christian life in its wholeness, not only in the "beauty of holinesss" but in being healthy and happy. It teaches not only the fatherhood of God but also the motherhood of God and so fulfills Isaiah's prophecy, "As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you."

In knowing God as Father-Mother, In knowing God as Father-Mother, and index in the desire of mankind to seek divine wisdom first has not been more rugged wind and insistent.

Perhaps it may be for the reason that many mortals have apparently satisfied them until put to a real test. When that seeming knowledge proved unvaling in their hour of need, disappointment was sore. Keenly they realized, then, that such incomplete and superficial understanding provided or saved. They felt as did the Psalmist when he cried, "For our soul is bowed down to the dust."

A PERPLEXING QUESTION

Too often under such circumstances mortals have been sorrowfully forced to conclude that it was impossible to say the provided in the provide tion of all-embracing, all-encompassing, all-controlling Principle—God.

He saw, though dimly at first, that this sense of God admitted no possibility of an opposing power. Provided, therefore, that God was infinite, and expressed Himself in goodness alone, the man's enlarging sense of God as absolute and all-powerful good took on a tremendous significance. As good alone was real, good alone had power. What, then, became of evil, of discouragement, of failure, lack, or inharmony? These must be powerless, placeless, Godless, and, consequently, unreal. The wonder of this new view of God and the universe filled the consciousness of the man in my office with awe and he vaguely but joyfully began to see new possibilities opening before him. He was now beginning to realize that no opposing force or power, so called, could actually exert a malign influence in his experience, because, as a child of God, he was under the immediate protection and care of omnipotent good. This was an important step in his mental awakening, but much remained to be done. It was now possible to explain to him that all-powerful Principle is also all-knowing Mind.

MENTAL AWAKENING

The human mind finds less difficulty, perhaps, in grasping the idea of God as divine Mind than as Principle. If so, the reason is plain. The very word "mind," itself, carries thought away from matter and material surroundings into an entirely different realm. Time, space, physical conditions, and limitations disappear. The morning paper tells us of progress in lindia, of changing conditions in Russia, of startling discoveries in the mid-Pacific. In the time required to glance over the headlines we have been around the world, and possibly some billions of miles out in space for good measure. Matter for the moment has ceased to be. We have been living in a mental world.

But even this mental realm is not the universe of Spirit, divine Mind. God's perfect creation of good contains in it nothing unlike its creator, nothing that can perish or disappear. Mortal, material man has no place in it, for matter is unreal, untrue, without substance. Mind alone is real, and is substance. Mind alone is real, and is substance. Mind is imperishable. Mind is All-in-all. This very allness of infinite Mind necessarily excludes from its universe every vestige of matter, including mortal man himself. Herein may be found the kernel of the whole question, as it pertains to our human experience.

The exclusion of material man from God's universe of good aggravates the human, or mortal, mind. It can conceive only of a universe and a creation of which it is an integral and important part. It is, therefore, perhaps not surprising that at this point my friend began to show some uneasiness. Presently he said: "That Mind is God, and therefore All, seems reasonable. It is not radically out of line with what I recall of my early religious training. But my sense of the allness of God did not exclude material man from His universe. I seem unable to follow you on this point. My physical senses assure me that matter, otherwise my body, is essentially real, at times painfully so; and I am wondering how you dispose of this unreal or matter man, as y really. Parents To Be Given Opportunity To Meet Teachers And Witness School Sessions

Nov. 16th to 20th:

"The future destinies of this country lie in the hands of the children who are now in our schools. This future will be determined by the education and training which our schools give. It is thus evident that education is the biggest and most important responsibility of every community and should be the serious concern of every citizen.

"In every citizen.
"In every city and town in this Commonwealth and throughout the nation a week has been set apart and designated as Education Week. This is sponsored by the National Education Association, by the American Legion and by other important organizations. This does not mean that regular school work is interrupted during Education Week but an effort is being made to interest parents and taxpayers in the work of the public schools. The schools exist solely for the welfare of the children and the intelligent interest and active cooperation of parents is of vital importance in solving this great problem.
"The schools of Newton are always importance in solving this great problem.

"The schools of Newton are always open to the inspection of parents. Their visits are welcome at all times but during Education Week they are especially urged to visit the schools, to get acquainted with the teachers of their children, to see the work that is being attempted, to acquaint themselves with existing conditions and to cooperate wherever possible to improve these conditions. In this way the parents will not only show an interest in their own children but bring courage and inspiration to the teachers.

"During the week there will be one or more occasions when a special program is planned. Parents will receive from the schools invitations to these special events and it is hoped that a very large percentage of the parents will accept these invitations. It is also hoped that they will come at any time during the week to see the schools in their ordinary routine. Such evidence of interest and cooperation will be greatly appreciated by principals and teachers."

On Wednesday, Nov. 18th, the Newton High school will hold an open session. Pupils will come to school at four o'clock and will be dismissed about eight o'clock. Parents are urged to visit the school during this session which is one of the main features of Education Week.

Local Service Clubs Hold Joint Meeting

Hear Talk On Better Business By

The Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs of Newton held a joint meeting on Tuesday in Elks' Hall at Newton Corner, Dr. Fred Paul, president of the Ki-wanis Club, presided and President Frank L. Richardson of the Rotary Club introduced the speaker, Mr. Ralph Wilson of the Babson Statistical Organization. Over one hundred Newton business men, members of the two clubs, were present.

Mr. Wilson opened his address with he statement that New England does Mr. Wison opened his address with the statement that New England does not know what a pleasant situation, industrially, financially and morally, it is in. New England does not know what hard times are. Philadelphia was 30 per cent. below the previous year and Chicago, with 65 bank failures, no taxes paid for three years and a no-rent payers organization formed, was 50 per cent, below. He went on to state that there is nothing peculiar about this period of depression, that there will be another period of over-expansion and still another depression. There is, however, a peculiar psychological reaction. Those who two years ago said that the period of prosperity at that time would never end are now saying that we will never get out of the depression.

Commodity prices, in many lines, are the lowest in the history of available statistics. There are real estate bargains all around us. The advantage comes to the man with the courage to seize the opportunity when it exists. As business recovers the maximum advantage begins to disappear. The economic problems arising are not incapable of being solved. Reparations are invoived in the decline of commodity prices and dollar becomes more valuable. The war debt taxation questions come up as do budgets, standards both living and monetary. To solve them we must study the proposed method and determine whether it is workable and economically sound. We must classify the problems, many of which would disappear with a good recovery of business. We must determine whether the solutions offered are remote possibilities. Mr. Wilson stated that he would much prefer to attack the problem of overproduction from the viewpoint of supply and demand than to educate backward nations up to our standards of living and consumption of manufactured products.

Referring to the Farm Board Relief Measure the speaker believed that to regulate price we must first have to control the supply and this cannot be done while billions of bushels of surplus wheat are being produced.

In conclusion Mr. Wilson expressed the thought that we must look to our fundamental growth more than ever before. The erection of American factories in foreign countries will not increase the production of home products. quarby standards both living and monetary. Childs Not To Run--Mayor Weeks May Have Opposition

With the date for filing nomination papers for the coming city election less than a week away, it is a foregone conclusion that Mayor Sinclair Weeks will have no serious opposition to his reclection. Rumors that he might be opposed by former Mayor Edwin O. Childs have been definitely settled by a statement from Mr. Childs that he will not be a candidate.

The Mayor may, however, have some opposition. John J. Bonovan of 12 Alban Road. Waban, has announced that he is considering the matter of being a candidate for the office of Mayor. He has not nas yet signed nomination papers, but it is understood that such papers are in circulation for him. Mr. Donovan first registered as a voter in Newton on November 21, 1927. He conducted for some years the Riverside Recreation Grounds and Martha's refreshment stand opposite Norumbega Bridge. The Mayor may, however,

PRECEDENT GIVES NEWTON ANOTHER WIN OVER WALTHAM

In the history of the Newton-Waltham gridiron battles the 25th of which will be staged tomorrow at the Dickinson Stadium field precedent has been established which points to another Newton victory. Newton has always won two games in a row and having won last year is due to come through again. The story of the Newton-Waltham series provides interesting facts. The teams first met in 1904 and with the exception of three years have staged annual games. No game was played in 1918 while the break following the 1925 game was not patched up until the 1928 season.

Newton was forced to wait until with but one common opponent, Somerville. Coach Leary's eleven turned in a 6 to 0 victory over Somerville while Coach Sanborn's eleven were the victims of a 7 to 0 defeat. But during the weeks intervening the games with Somerville the latter had advanced tremendously. Waltham met the Dickerman outfit in the second game of the year while Newton caught them in their fifth game after they had begun to show a stronger and more united team play. Waltham was victorious over Watertown in its opening game by a comfortable margin and also conquered Providence Tech in its third straight victory but since the Saturday before Columbus Day the Wateh City lads have not tasted the sweets of victory. And how sweet a victory over Newton would taste, Waltham alone knows. In its last four games Waltham has lost to Fitchburg, Lynn English and Fitchburg, and has been held to a scoreless tie by Medford. It will mean a lot to Waltham to topple Newton as it will make up to some extent for an otherwise more or less drab season. On the other hand losing to Newton will just about be the last straw for Waltham as their one remaining opponent, Brockton, is a heavy favorite in the game to come. In meeting such teams as Waltham has in its last four games much of the edge has prob-

bably been worn off the Waltham eleven's play. Just how much the inspiration of the deep rivalry between Waltham and Newton and practically the last chance to end the season with a fifty-fifty rating will mean is problematical and on its extent most of Waltham's chances to-morrow bings. norrow hinge morrow hinge.

Newton with five victories and two losses has conquered Arlington, Cambridge Latin, Quincy and Woburn by comfortable margins and protected its 6 to 0 lead against Rindge last week with fine defensive play. Somerville and Everett are the two teams which have defeated Newton, and the orange and black showed a good defense on both occasions. In the Everett game it was an interception of a pass that brought defeat and at Somerville a long runback of a kickoff set the stage for the only score of the game.

Newton should go into the Wala kickoff set the stage for the only score of the game.

Newton should go into the Waltham game in better physical shape than Waltham in that Newton has not been forced to play itself out every week. But comparative scores, physical condition and other factors are of little use in forecasting a Newton-Waltham game. With such intense rivalry existing between two schools both teams will give all they have to score and to prevent their opponents from scoring. It will be a give and take battle with neither team having much of an advantage on either offense or defense. Each team has a fair aerial game which may produce the winning score. With Huston doing the punting the Newton team may have a slight advantage in this respect but unless the ends or tackles are right down on the receiver the runback of the punt may offset any advantage in this department. It looks as though the team that can force the breaks through better blocking, interfering and tackle will come out on top. It is extremely doubtful if there ever was a more even game than that expect-det omorrow. a more even game than that expect ed tomorrow.

Waltham suffered some loss of strength through a leg injury to Tino Lando, regular fullback, who has done most of the passing for the Watch City team this fall. Jimmy Falzone, quarterback, has taken over the passing burden and Allia or Sumner will play at fullback. Coach Leary has been working some time with several sophomore backs and either Van Wart or Harrigan is expected to start at right half back. Baumann, a sophomore tackle, has looked good in practice and may win the starting beth tice and may win the starting bertl on the left of the line from Tony Miele.

Miele.

Coach Sanborn plans to start his three veteran backs, Duane, Mullen and Huston with Jimmy Cahill, track captain at Blackler's post at halfback. Blackler is slated to see early action if Waltham upsets the running attack which Cahill is expected to lead. The Newton mentor will start his regular line with Kevorkian starting in place of Giles as against Rindge and Tommy Lyons at the pivot berth instead of Patterson. Patterson will probably see plenty of action, however.

For the war veteran work of the chapter the members brought four dozen neckties for the veterans at the Bedford Hospital and for those at Northampton four dozen pairs of silk stockings which they make into hooked rugs. Plans for Christmas boxes to be sent to the Newton boys in veterans' hospitals were discussed. The amendment to the constitution in regard to the election of two councillor, reported on a hearing at the State House on October 14th in regard to the maming of the new Boston-Worcester highway, the success of a Fashion Show held at Filene's in October, a project of the society to sell articles at the Near East Relief rooms by which they would realize

MAKES PLEA FOR FETTERED CHILD

Mrs. Francis J. Flagg was the speaker at the monthly Church Day of the Woman's Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Newtonville on Thursday of last week, using as her subject "The Fine Art of Living with Others." Mrs. Flagg, who is a Newtonville resident, is a popular lecturer and writer and is also president of several women's clubs. She pointed out how in the first home in the Garden of Eden with the sky overhead studded with stars, with the music of the birds, in fact with God as the decorator, the first parents lived so for themselves that they neglected their children who then, as do children now, needed to experience the rich living which comes through respect, sympathy, forbearance, and cooperation in the home.

one the control of the mother hen who tried to keep her ducklings from going into the water was used as an example of the parents who try to shape their children's lives to a large extent. A lad who was asked what he intended to do when he grew up said, "When I finish being a doctor for mother and a lawyer for Dad I think I'll be a cop." Then there are the parents who set too high standards for their children. The speaker was once embarrassed when a fine appearing woman in her audience the parents who set too high standards for their children. The speaker was once embarrassed when a fine appearing woman in her audience left apparently in a disturbed frame of mind. Later the woman came to her and told the sad story of the suicide of their twelve-year-old boy after she and her husband had reprimanded him for a poor report in Latin. The father was a lawyer of note and the mother a college woman, both feeling that there was a standard for their boy. A note found with the lad read, "I couldn't bear to disgrace you." Later the grieving parents learned that their son had excelled in manual training in school. The speaker stressed the value of faithfulness in little things. Some time ago at the Watertown arsenal a steel beam weighing 600 pounds and a cork were suspended side by side. At the end of ten minutes the swinging cork hitting the beam had caused it to vibrate and in an additional ten minutes the swinging cork hitting the beam had caused it to vibrate and in an additional ten minutes the swinging cork hitting the beam had caused it to vibrate and in an additional ten minutes the swinging cork hitting the beam had caused it to vibrate and in an additional ten minutes the swinging cork hitting the beam had caused it to vibrate and in an additional ten minutes the swinging cork hitting the beam had caused it to vibrate and in an additional ten minutes the fort.

The recent death of the mother of Edna St. Vincent Millay, the poet, impressed the speaker with the truth there is sometimes glory in unfinished tasks. All her life the mother found the time but glory came thru her daughter's fame. Mrs. Flagg believes that we need more faith in a Supreme Being. Like Job we must find Him in our daily lives both in our homes and outside.

The afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock with the president, Mrs. Frank E. Morris, in the chair. Prayer was offered by Mrs. E. E. Davidson. Mrs. Eva M. E. Williams, accompanied by Mrs. R. W. Machamer, gave a group of vocal selections. "O Moc. Upon the Water." "In the Tim

The cast has been very carefully chosen, each member having appeared in many plays, some having played on the professional stage. The cast includes the following: Hazel Sholley, who plays Rosalita, and is well-known to all Newton audiences for her very marked histrionic ability. Lex Souter, who has played on the Shubert Circuit and has taken leading roles in the "Alarm Clock" and "A Fool There Was," will take the part of the young artist, the leading male part in "Rosalita." Ernest Braithwaite, who has taken many character parts, will portray an English butler. Mr. Braithwaite will be remembered for his splendid performance in "Her Choice" and "The High Road." Dan Smith has played with the Players, appearing in "The Nineteenth Hole." Mr. Smith has also been in many presentations of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas. Mariada Comer, who will be remembered for her excellent portrayal of "Bab" in the play of the same name, will again play a juvenile part.

Miss Comer also appeared successfully in "Daddy Long Legs." Marian Drew Bassett, as "Nora," the Irish maid, needs no introduction. It is just another one of Miss Bassett's splendid character interpretations. She played in "Joint Owners in Spain" and "Barnum Was Right." Gordon Daly plays what is known in the theatrical world as the "Heavy." He She pay and "Barnum Was Right." Gordon Daly plays what is known in the theatrical world as the "Heavy." Mr. Sloane, the playwright, is also coaching the play which gives great promise of being one of the best of the Club's many dramatic successes.

Mr. Sloane has woven his theme around the character of Rosalita, daughter of an Italian organ-grinder, reduced from a higher station in his own country, and forced through a chain of circumstances to seek a better fortune in a new world. The short evening session from 4.15 to 8.15 o'clock. There will be classes in all the departments, representing the different activities of the school. Another piece of social service will be taken up by them after Christmas. And finally, "Lest we forget," all Clubwomen are reminded that there are veterans lying in hospitals—Newton men—who can't enjoy things of the outside world. No one can afford to forget these men who fought for our country—certainly not patriotic citizens, men or women. Any evidence that they are not forgotten will help to ease the monotony of their days, and will give them a renewed interest. Gifts of cigarettes, books, and magazines will be most welcome. In some cases their families are needing a helping hand. All who are willing to help are urged to apply for further particulars to Mrs. Harry M. Weber, Newton North 2295.

Newton Girls Beat Waltham

On Monday afternoon the Newton High first and second girls' field hockey teams met the two Waltham aggregations and shut them out 3 to 0 and 4 to 0, respectively. The Newton girls showed a far superior brand of team work in both games. In the first half of the varsity game it was almost an even battle with Edith Quirk scoring the first Newton tally. M. Fletcher and J. McKenna put the game on ice by scoring in rapid succession in the second half. Josephine Harvey was the Newton outstanding star at left wing in the second game. She tallied all of the orange and black goals, two in the first half and the final one in the first two minutes of the second. The fourth tally was made by L. Mason, fright inner.

Prior to the Brookline game the intermediates made a last minute score to win 7 to 6 from the Milton Academy seconds after the latter had enjoyed a 6 to 0 lead for some time. The Newton youths had to stage a 70 yard march to produce the winning score in this game with their favorite play, a criss-cross with a forward on the end, enabling them to cover the distance in three plays.

POLICE NEWS

Joseph H. Taylor of 35 Ripley street, Newton Centre, was fined $25 in the Newton Court yesterday for parking his car without proper lights. Ordinarily the fine for this offense is $5 or $10. However, a peculiar circumstance was connected with Taylor's case. Patrolman O'Donnell told the court that he had attached a tag to Taylor's car. Later a truck driver approached O'Donnell and showed him a tag which he said he had found attached to his truck. Upon examining the tag O'Donnell found it was the one he had put on Taylor's car.

Hyman Gessman of Winthrop was in court yesterday charged with failure to provide for his wife and child. His case was continued until December 5.

Marron, a patrolman on the Newton police department, was discharged from the force last Friday after he had been found guilty of neglect of duty. He had been given a hearing by Mayor Weeks a couple of days previous. Marron was appointed to the department on February 24, 1929. It has been reported that Marron's attorney is to appeal to the courts from the mayor's decision in discharging the patrolman. Antonio Forte of 67 Clinton street, Newton, was in the Newton court last Friday to answer charges of making an illegal sale of liquor and of keeping liquor for sale. Luigi Cardarelli of Green court, Nonantum, who was supposed to be a witness for the prosecution, surprised the police when he testified that the liquor had been given him instead of his having paid $5 for a gallon of alcohol as he was said to have stated, when he was stopped by the police and the liquor taken from him. Forte's home was raided after the alleged sale took place and a considerable quantity of liquor was seized. Judge Bacon continued the case until November 23. Frank Cornell of Natick was arrested early Sunday morning by Patrolman J. P. Murphy charged with driving while under the influence of liquor. COMPLAINTS ABOUT DOG KENNELS

A complaint has been received by the Public Buildings Department of Newton concerning a dog kennel which was moved from 35 Chestnut terrace, Newton Centre, to 84 Sumner street in that neighborhood. The kennel is owned by Mrs. Vivienne Butler who had a permit to keep 5 dogs at the Chestnut terrace locus. The location to which the building has been moved is back of the residence of George W. Pratt at 19 Chestnut terrace, and on a level with the second story windows of Mr. Pratt's home. Incidentally, Mr. Pratt was formerly President of the Newton Board of Aledrmen and is somewhat conversant with city affairs.

According to the Public Buildings Department no permit was granted for the removal of the kennel building. And also, the new locus of the kennel is in a residence zone so that the moving of the dog domicile does not conform with the zoning ordinance.

Recent Engagements

Announcement has been made by Domenic Lombardi of 148 Pine street. Both dogs were ordered restrained and Dr. Boutelle was notified to examine them.

Announcement has been made by Mrs. Lydia W. Ison of Griffin, Georgia, of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Ethelyn Elizabeth Ison, to Mr. Richard Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. THE PRINCIPLE IS WRONG

Our attention was called recently to the fact that the printing department of our vocational school is entering into competition with local printers by accepting job work of general nature. Not being in the job printing trade, ourselves our comment is not made because of personal reasons, but entirely on the grounds of principle. Much criticism has been made of the entrance of government into business and here is an almost similar practice brought directly home to us. The argument may be raised that the amount of outside work done by the students is small, but the practice of going outside into general trade, whether into printing or other lines of business, is quite apt to lead to fields of larger endeavor. The taxpayers of Newton, many of them local business men, are helping to support the vocational school, and when this outside work is done it diverts business from those who are supporting the school. While we believe thoroughly in the value of vocational training in all trades, we believe that sufficient work can be found within the school. The practice of competing with local business should be prohibited at once. Our attention was called recently to the fact that the print-

SIX MILLIONS IN SIX WEEKS

Christmas Day is exactly six weeks away. Within less than half that time over six hundred millions of dollars will be distributed to the many thousands of members of the Christmas Clubs in many banks throughout the country. The estimate for Massachusetts is in the neighborhood of fifty-six millions of dollars and the release of this sum will bring a seasonal increase in business. Each dollar will purchase almost half as much again as it would a few years ago. This is an appropriate time and opportunity for the buying public to spend wisely and help business on its slow but steady recovery to normal conditions. Local recipients of Christmas Club checks should plan now to do their Christmas shopping in Newton.

DO YOU KNOW YOUR CHILD'S TEACHER?

Next week is education week in the Newton schools. Opportunity will be offered the parents of Newton school children to know the teachers, to see the work done in the schools and to acquaint themselves with conditions. The school principals and teachers are seeking the co-operation of the parents in helping to improve conditions. Do you send your child to school and take no interest in what he is doing, save to wonder why he does not seem as bright as you used to be, or do you know your child's teacher and the problems she is called upon to solve in regard to your child? Here is your opportunity. The school teacher can do much more for your child if given your interest and co-operation.

The proposed changes in the compulsory liability insurance law, which were all rejected by the Legislature, were well cast aside. Had they not been, it is more than probable that many of the members of the Legislature who voted to pass them might be cast aside by disgusted constituents at the next election. With the number of automobile fatalities constantly increasing, with more and more persons suffering injuries from accidents caused by reckless or drunken drivers, wouldn't it be a fine state of affairs to abolish the financial protection now afforded to the victims of such drivers? Getting blood from a stone would be aseasy as trying to get the first $100 damages from a large percentage of individuals who are operating cars today. And what satisfaction it would be to someone crippled in an accident to know that the person responsible lost his license to drive when he failed to pay damages. What help it would be to dependents of some victim left without any financial aid, if the driver of a death dealing car who could not or would not pay, had his license to drive revoked? How sensible was the suggestion which protected pedestrians but which would have deprived occupants of cars of protection by compulsory insurance? Of course none of these proposed changes in the insurance law were suggested by insurance companies.

made with the Newton water main to permit this city drawing from the big Metropolitan water main whenever it so desires. A huge Venturi water meter has been installed at the connection and on each side of this meter a big water gate has been attached. A by-pass nearby necessitates two more gates, making six in all at this spot. Another such connection between the big Metropolitan main and the Newton system was made at the corner of Washington and Elm streets, West Newton, where another Venturi meter was placed.

Christmas shopping time approaches and with it the annual campaign waged by enterprising gentry who send unordered articles by mail, such as neckties, Christmas Cards and the like. They are usually accompanied by pleas to buy on the allegation that the sender is crippled or handicapped severely in some way. Unless you can authenticate such claims, it is a good practice to patronize your local merchants. Business has been anything but brisk with them and they need your trade. And the money they receive from you is spent by them in this community, to assist you to make a livelihood.

The increased number of crimes by youths and boys is being constantly deplored and remedies sought. It has been the practice in late years to extend more and more clemency and sympathy to young offenders. Erring youths and boys must not be called "criminals." To do this would called "criminals." On Tuesday representatives of the National Board of Fire Underwriters made a tour of the city inspecting the facilities for protection against fire. Their tour included the testing of many hydrants in various parts of the Newtons. The flushing of the hydrants caused loosening of rust deposits in the water mains and resultant discolored water in sections where the hydrants were opened.

One of Newton's oldest stores, that of Wilson Brothers, grocers, starts on a new chapter in its honorable career today when it commences the sale of fresh meats and vegetables in the form of the famous "Birdseye Frosted Foods." This store at 304 Centre street, Newton Corner, was established by Gawn Wilson over 40 years ago and has long been favorably known for its large stock of high class groceries and kitchen ware. In connection with its new activity, the interior of the store has been renovated and modernized.

Bids will probably be advertised next month for that section of the Boston & Worcester super-highway which will run through this city along Boylston street—the old Boston & Worcester turnpike. It extends from the Brookline line at Chestnut Hill. near Hammond's Pond. through Thompsonville. Newton Highlands and Newton Upper Falls to the bridge over the Charles River at the Wellesley line a distance of about three miles. The big highway will be 30 feet wide. It will have two sidewalks, each 10 feet in width. The size of the roadways for automobile traffic will eventually be 30 feet for each roadway; the same width as the roadways on those sections of the highway which have been completed. But, unless satisfactory settlement can be made with the present owners of the Boston & Worcester Railway, the two roadways on the artery will be only 20 feet each in width for the present. Eventually, it is expected that each roadway will be 30 feet wide, with a 10 foot grass plot in the centre of the highway, removing obstacles and widening will probably be carried on this winter and the laying of the concrete surface will be done next Spring.

The bridge now over the Charles River at the Upper Falls will be removed and a modern structure will be built. It will be 10 to 12 feet higher than the present bridge and about 14 feet wider, From this bridge a viaduct will start which will carry the Worcester highway on an overpass across Chestnut street and reverpass will carry the big highway across the intersection of Centre and Winchester streets and at Parker street an arrangement will be devised to make cross traffic at this point less hazardous. Another traffic problem which must be met is at Thompsonville where Langley road crosses.

Mayor Weeks could take a pardonable degree of pride as he laid the cornerstones of the new City Hall and War Memorial on Wednesday, Armistice Day. The beautiful new structure and its surrounding grounds will mark his regime. There has been criticism of the Mayor's action in taking the initiative for the construction of the new civic centre. Critics took the stand that such an expensive project should not have been started under existing conditions. On the other hand, the Mayor only followed the course urged by President Hoover that public works should be undertaken to relieve unemployment. Newton has, for a long time, badly needed a new City Hall. The building of such a structure had been postponed for many years and not only have the various departments of the city been cramped for space in the offices at the old building at West Newton, but valuable records of the city have been decaying because of improper storage facilities and their safety endangered. Besides, a city the size and wealth of Newton should have sufficient civic spirit to possess a City Hall dignified and attractive in keeping with the community, even as private corporations and institutions vie one with the other to be housed in structures to which they can point without apologizing. The cost of building Newton's new civic centre, distributed as it is over a long term of years, will neither be a hardship on taxpayers, or cause any material addition to the tax burden at the present time.

The Observatory at Mount Wilson will have a telescope with an eye or lens two hundred inches wide. Twice as big as any other telescope, this wonderful cosmic eye will carry man's sight into space three times as far as it has ever gone before, revealing new nebulae, new marvels, hundreds of millions of 'light years' away.

The eye of man, not the telescope, sees. The telescope only supplies to the human eye a wider pupil. If you are among the fortunate, and possess a one dollar bill, you may read on its face, perhaps under a picture of George Washington, "One Silver Certificate" Our Treasury thinks silver is good enough for little people with one dollar bills. From five dollars up, you enter realms of high finance, and read on your bills, "Recemable in Gold at the United States Treasury, or Lawful Money, at any l'ederal Reserve Bank." The words "Or Lawful Money" seem to imply a little hedge on the gold basis. The Abyssinian king and emperor. Halle Selassie, calling himself "King of Kings, Conquering Lion of the Tribe of Judah, Elect of God and Light of the World," has inaugurated a "modern government" with a two-chamber legislature, and celebrated in a golden coach, once owned by Kaiser William. Sweden proposes an interesting experiment. Ships with the latest types of recrifectator plants will bring Swedish butter here and take heach American fruits. Every package of butter will contain the printed statement. "Sweden cannot import fruits if its ships cannot take Swedish goods to the United States and sell them there." This appeal for fair tariff play unfortunately, will not reach our "best minds" that control the tariff, for those minds do not unwrap packages of butter. That is done in the kitchen. If the Swedish farmers could arrange with bootleggers to wrap their tariff protests around bottles of whiskey their complaint would attract at tention.

A Chicago doctor claims to have found a cure for baldness. The shiny pate of any bozo whose thatch has disappeared will become covered again when the bald-headed one has been incoulated with an extract from the anterior lobe of a sheep's pitui-tary gland. If you do not know what tary gland. If you do not know what part of a sheep this is, it might be explained that the pituitary gland is a small, oval reddish-gray vascular body attached to the infundibulum of the brain. Now, having made that quite clear, how is the doctor going to prove that a baldhead who is inoculated with such an extract from a sheep, will not grow wool instead of hair? Bah!

Why be censorious on the action of the members of the Massachusetts Legislature in voting themselves $400 additional salary for the extra time they spent in solving the compulsory insurance problem? Are not many of them victims of the prevailing hard times (we didn't say "depression") and in need of cash? And, of course, the other members of the Legislature wouldn't be inconsiderate enough to embarrass their less fortunate fellows by discriminating in the matter of the extra salaries. Doesn't the LORD help those who help themselves? And finally, don't the legislators say "We reserve comment for our constituents." And how many of these constituents take sufficient interest in politics to remember next election what happened in this session of the Legislature? THOMAS H. HOULIHAN

With the collapse of prosecution against autoists who defy parking ordinances because of the ruling that the identity of the person actually parking the car must be established, the Legislature should waste no time in passing a law making the owner of a car responsible for the illegal parking of that car. When there are so many autoists who will readily lie to escape punishment for deliberately breaking laws and ordinances, speedy measures should be taken to enable the police to have proper legal weapon against such selfish individuals who care little for the rights or convenience of the general public. Professor Richard M. Vaughan of the Andover Newton Theological School said in part:
"The problem of alcoholic beverages is primarily physiological and only secondarily political. If the general use of such beverages is a social menace, it is through the effect of a narcotic drug upon the higher brain centers. Professor A. R. Cushny of Edinburgh, one of the highest authorities in the medical world, gives the verdict of modern science when he says that alcohol even in the smallest quantities of the brain and 'to annihilate those qualities that have been built up through education and experience, the power of self-control and moral responsibility.' In the light of this fact, it is easy to understand why alcohol has played so large a part in accidents, immoralities and crimes.

"Practically only one argument remains to the proponents of alcohol—the illusory sense of well-being which attends the benumbing effect of the drug upon the nerve centers. True relaxation comes from diversion of attention with the wholesome interests of life. In our highly complicated machine age, society has full right to guard the common welfare by putting the traffic in intoxicants under the ban of the law. In view of the United States, on the broad ground of public policy, has again and again as tremendous undertaking to change deeply rooted social habits. Progress lies in education and not in return to any of the discredited systems of purposes."

Then followed a delightful feature of the afternoon when Mrs. Moses H. Gulesian, of Newton Centre, thrilled the audience with a selection from Chopin followed by an original composition called "in a Hong Kong Garden," and upon request Mrs. Gulesian read the verse and played the music she composed and dedicated to Grace Morrison Poole, candidate from Massachusetts for the presidency of the General Federation.

Miss Ruth Chapin, of the Newton Welfare Bureau and the Mayor's Relief Committee, told briefly of the urgent need for carrying on the work commenced last year, explaining three ways in which the work is carried on, first by employment, secondly by loans, and lastly by relief. She made a very strong plea for work of all kinds, that being the most desired and the most requested form of help. Headquarters for the Federation Clothing Chest, presided over by Mrs. Arthur W. "Spite Wife"

EVERY girl dreams of marriage as a sacred rite that binds two hearts in vows of eternal love.

Judith Denning joined hands with Stanley Carter in the parlor of her home in Summerfield while the old minister, whom she had known all her life, said the words that made them one. Judith was happyproud of this handsome man who was her husband-thrilled that he had chosen her from among all the millions of other girls. She had known him one short month, but that only added romance to the day.

How was she to know she was being cheated; that he could never give her that which any girl has a right to ask of her husband-love. That is the start of "Spite Wife." Now you read what happens-

Three local youths, two of them freshmen, placed in the annual fall handicap track meet at Northeastern University last Saturday. Curtis Scott of Newtonville, a senior, was the high individual winner with two first places and a tie for another first. He won the 120-yd. low hurdles, the broad did not compete in the high jump, could have won easily from scratch.

George Lamb, the only scratch man in the mile run, overcame all starters with handicaps but one to finish second. The winner, Rodham, with a handicap of 40 yards won by less than five yards over Lamb. Bill Quigley

Aldermen Discuss Lower Falls Dump and West Newton Excavation

Require Clean Fill At Dump-"Eye Sore" At Corner Commonwealth Ave. and Washington St.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night Alderman Powers of Ward 1 stated that he had received a complaint that day about the dumping of rubbish at the huge pit which exists at the Woodland Sand & Gravel property on Washington Street. Newton Lower Falls, opposite Beacon street. Powers stated that it was not his purpose to intrude on the domain of the Ward 4 aldermen, but as he had spent an hour at this place last July on one very hot afternoon, when an agreement had been reached between members of the Board of Aldermen, the City Solicitor, the City Engineer and the managing owner of the gravel pit, he believed that has some right to take an active interest in conditions at the pit.

Following protests made by property owners nearby about the eyesore caused by very deep excavating at this pit and the resultant depreciation in nearby properties, there was the conference referred to at the pit and as a condition for the renewal of the permit to operate the pit it was agreed by the owners of it that a fill 10 feet wide would be made along the line of Beacon street extension for a distance of 270 feet in from Washing.

agreed by the owners of it that a fill 10 feet wide would be made along the line of Beacon street extension for a distance of 270 feet in from Washington street during the period of a year beginning July 27, 1931; that this permit will be revoked by the Mayor if the City Engineer certifies at the end of 180 days from July 27, 1931 that there is evidence that the pit owners have not shown good faith in keeping the agreement; that all fill shall consist of clean fill, no fill to consist of automobile bodies or parts and no promiscuous dumping to be allowed. Powers said that he had visited the dump and had observed rubbish and automobile parts, including a body, dumped there. He had been informed that the rubbish had been informed that the rubbish lad been dumped there by the Street Department because this department had not been acquainted with the agreement made between the City officials and the pit owners last July. He had also been informed that on Monday there had been a consultation between the Mayor and some heads of city departments and it had been agreed on that no further dumping will be allowed at this pit, and that within the next week or two the rubbish which has been dumped there will have been covered with clean fill. The Ward I Alderman stated that because of the apprehension caused by the dumping of rubbish at the pit, he deemed it advisable to give publicity to this matter in order that persons residing in the neighborhood, as well as the general public of Newton, ought to be given this reassuring information. He suggested that signs be placed at the edge of the pit for bidding dumping. tion.

According to rulings made in the past by the City Solicitor, a single lot, or a couple of lots cannot be changed in zone. An appreciable area must be included. Should a petition be entered for a zoning change at the southeast corner of the streets, it would bring a business zone contiguous to the new Levi Warren Junior High School, which, with its surrounding grounds cost over $750,000. Determing grounds cost over $750,000. Determines. tion. He suggested that signs be placed at the edge of the pit for Powers then called attention to an undesirable condition which has been created during the past couple of months at the southeast corner of Washington street and Commonwealth avenue, West Newton. He said that he believed many of the Aldermen did not know of the drastic change in the terrain at this place. The high land at this corner has been se excavated that a considerable area has been reduced to the street level and houses are left perched above a high perpendicular bank. He inquired if any of the Ward 3 Aldermen knew anything of this matter.

Alderman Chase of Ward 3 replied bidding dumping. the Newton Planning Board neld a couple of weeks ago, it was proposed that no permits for any structures be granted on the excavated corner unless provision be made for decided setbacks. It is the belief of the Planning Board that a circle for traffic be made at the intersection of Commonwealth avenue and Washington street, similar to that at Cleveland Circle near the Chestnut Hill Reservoir. When the new Boston & Worcester traffic artery will be in use within the next couple of years, a huge increase in traffic will pass the intersection at Washington street and Commonwealth avenue. Much of the traffic to and from the Worcester road will pass over Washington street between Wellesley Hills and points towards Cambridge and north of Boston.

Alderman Chase of Ward 3 replied that he did not know anything regarding the object of the excavating, but that he would be glad to obtain some information. Alderman Holden of Ward 6 said that it is understood among real estate men in Newton that the new owner of the property at the corner of Washington street and Com monwealth avenue has had the exca monwealth avenue has had the excavation made in the hope that this land will be changed from a residence zone to a business zone. Alterman Powers replied that this information coincided with what he had supposed is the purpose of the excavating. He commented that the Newton Board of Aldermen, should refuse to make such a zoning change, if a petition for it shall be presented, because by so doing they would countries was discovered by neighbors.

Respirator Is Given To Hospital

Equipment Needed To Combat

The Newton Hospital Aid Association is one of the oldest of Newton's benevolent organizations having come into existence at the time when the old Cottage Hospital was first planned. Starting with a small group of Newton women it now has a membership of nearly 800 representative women from all the Newtons and Wellesley. For many years the only income of the Association was the small annual membership fee and an occasional fair or social event. More recently some of the beautiful Newton homes have been opened for invitation Bridge paror social event. More recently some of the beautiful Newton homes have been opened for invitation Bridge parties and these have always proved to be immensely popular events and have added substantial sums to the treasury. For the last six years the Association has operated at 5 Washington terrace, Newtonville a Thrift Shop known as the Benefit Shop where the members send their discarded clothing, furniture, books and all salable things, and they are sold to the public. The shop has earned not only a steady income, which has been used entirely for the hospital but has proved a most valuable help to the Community. All classes of people avail themselves of it, the self-respecting poor who want to pay something but can't afford regular shop prices, the thrifty people who love a bargain, even the rich people who find here an opportunity to buy for their less fortunate friends and who find here an opportunity to buy for their less fortunate friends, and the unemployed who are not willing to accept actual charity. It has always been the aim of the Association to spend their money for outstanding things for the hospital that could not be financed by the regular Hospital budget—things that would add to the prestige of the Newton Hospital. Last year this gift took the form of a $3000 fluoroscopic fracture tube and a $500 oxygen tank. At a board meeting last week the directors voted to present to the hospital a respirator. This last gift is most significant this time of infantile paralysis problems—where a matter of hours in getting a critical case to a hospital equipped with a the unemployed who are not willing case to a hospital equipped with a respirator may determine the out-come. Very few hospitals of the size respirator may come. Very few hospitals of the size of ours are so equipped and have to depend on the Mass. General or the Children's Hospitals for respirator treatment. Now all patients requiring such treatment in this vicinity can be cared for in our own hospital.

These are only the outstanding gifts to the hospital in the last two years. It would take a whole page to enumerate the smaller ones and the $25,000 equipment of the dining wing of the new hospital was one of the Association's largest donations. We have every reason to be proud of our hospital but the steady loyal enthusiastic work of the women who of our hospital but the steady loyal enthusiastic work of the women who are back of this work are a large factor in its success and standing. Every woman in Newton should at least have a yearly membership in the Hospital Aid. Every family should remember to send donations to the Benefit Shop and support it in every way possible.

MIDDLESEX AND BOSTON AIDS UNEMPLOYMENT FUND

An example of "charitable mathematics" by which $250 was subtracted from $175 and still left a balance of $100 was announced today by Mayor Sinclair Weeks of Newton as the unusual result of a benefit dance for the unemployed recently held at the Totem Pole Ballroom in Norumbega

The dance was "wrecked" by chil winds and driving rains. Daintily dressed debutantes and their escorts and when coat checkers and ticket sellers counted the receipts they had only $175. The rent of the ballroom, plus the cost of an orchestra imported from New York, was exactly $250. Benefit to the unemployed looked less than nothing.

Then the officials of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company, who own the ballroom, took the receipts and the bills and went to work on the problem with the result that ceipts and the bills and went to work on the problem with the result that Mayor Weeks today received from President Harry H. Hanson of the railway, a paid receipt of all the dance bills and a check for $100 besides. The money thus obtained, as the answer to the example of big hearted figuring, was added to the fund for aiding Newton's unemployed.

The Call to Service

"I appeal to the American people to make November 26 next the outstanding Thanksgiving day in the history of the United States; that we may say on that day that America has again demonstrated her ideals; that we have each of us contributed our full part; that we in each of our communities have given full assurance against hunger and cold among our people; that upon this Thanksgiving day we have removed the fear of the forthcoming winter from the hearts of all who are suffering and in distress—that we are our brother's keeper."

Charles Chaisson, John Russo and William F. McGrath have served for years as election officers. Chaisson is now employed by the Water De-partment, McGrath by the Forestry Department and Russo by the Street Department. They felt that others capable of doing the work were un-employed and would be aided by the $10 which will be paid for a day's work at polling places next December 8th.

They were commended by the Mayor for their acts and other elec-tion officers who can be replaced without impairing the service on that day will be asked to step aside for those more in need of the compensa-tion. A total of 38 men and wom en are employed at city elections. Naturally a good portion of these, because of experience in counting and checking, will have to be retained but many one day jobs for the unemployed can be created.

Nomination papers for Mayor Sinclair Weeks were filed on Tuesday by clair Weeks were filed on Tuesday by his secretary, James Dempsey. Automobiles driven by William French of 153 River street, Cambridge and Samuel Miller of 108 Newtonville avenue, Newton, collided at the corner of Waverley avenue and Tremont street, Newton, on Wednesday morning. French's car then hit a tree and capsized. Young French received injuries to his head, arms and hands. The police ambulance responded, but the Cambridge youth declined to go to the hospital and was taken to his home by the driver of a passing truck.

FEWER VOTERS THIS YEAR

The prevailing depression has hit the voting list in Newton. This year when the lists closed prior to the coming city election, it was found that the total is 310 less than last year. The number of new voters on the lists is 890 and 1200 names were dropped. There are now 27,948 voters on the lists.

Next Thursday is Thanks-giving Day. As a result, this paper must go to press a day earlier than usual in order to be issued on time.

Advertisers and Correspondents are urged to have their copy in as early as possible next week, preferably either Monday or Tuesday, as this paper will go to press Wednesday.

NEWTON DEFEATS CLOSE RIVAL IN

The Newton-Waltham game at Dickinson Stadium Field, Newtonville, last Saturday was one of the most colorful of the twenty-five games in which the two close rivals have met. The 19 to 6 Newton victory gave Newton the edge in the last five games and made it Newton's eighth win in the last twelve with one tie and three defeats. The victory was also Newton's sixth in eight games this season and its third in a row, the longest stretch of the year.

Within the first three minutes of play each team had scored a touchdown to set some kind of a record for Newton-Waltham meetings. Jimmy Cahill had brought the Newton stands to their feet with a 41-yard off tackle after Waltham had kicked when no headway could be made against the Newton line after the kickoff. Huston made good on the try for point to Four boys living in the vicinity of Billings park, Newton, will tell Mrs. Cella Wellman, probation officer of the juvenile court at West Newton, why they pulled Box 122 at Billings park on Tuesday afternoon. One of the four "smart boys" was discovered by Patrolman James Goddard hiding on the veranda of an occupied house near the box after the firemen had responded to the false alarm. From him the officer learned the names of the other culprits.

SURPRISES WORLD WITH NEW HEAT UNIT

Gar Wood, famous defender of the Harmsworth Trophy, emblematic of world supremacy in speed boat racing, as well as of hydraulic hoist fame, has surprised the heating industry with a new oil-burning boiler unit. After two years of research and months of rigorous tests, an automatic heat machine has been perfected. It is said to be entirely new and totally different in design and construction from any other. Its boiler is literally turned upside down. Its burner does not depend on refractory limings. Boiler and burner are designed for, and engineered into each other, and the Gar Wood balanced heating unit is claimed to have an efficiency that is "almost unbelievable" and brings every advantage of automatic heat revenue heat severy advantage of automatic heat metals and brings every advantage of automatic heat metals and brings every advantage of automatic heat metals and brings every advantage of automatic heat metals and brings of the health of all who live on its banks, and is far from being a thing of beauty. BEHIND THE SMOKE SCREEN

We wonder how much is going on behind the smoke screen which has been caused by the so-called "salary-grab" by the legislators in voting themselves $400 pay for the recent extra legislators in voting themselves $400 pay for the recent extra session. It might have left a better taste in the public mouths if the legislators had reduced their pay to a minimum instead of taking a "double time rate." But there is more behind the question than the amount of pay drawn. Some weeks ago the 1932 automobile insurance rates were announced, in most cases higher than owners have been paying. Naturally there was considerable public resentment. In view of the noise over the new rates, the Governor had but one of two courses to follow. He could have sat quietly back and allowed the new rates to be promulgated with the loss of many votes at the next election. Instead, he called the legislature into extra session to appease the public wrath. the legislature into extra session to appease the public wrath. In other words he "passed the buck" to use a common expression. It was almost a foregone conclusion that the Legislature could do but little in regard to the compulsory insurance problem and its many complications. Now that the ance problem and its many complications. Now that the legislators have "passed the buck" back to the Governor, we wonder what the next step will be. Incidentally we are glad we do not have to pay the insurance rates charged in New York city where, we understand, the rate on a certain small car is about $133.

YOUTHFUL EXUBERANCE VS. ROWDYISM

Annual schoolboy football games between close rivals often cause actions which under other considerations would never be tolerated. We refer to the painting of large "W's" with bright red paint on the concrete face of the Dickinson Memorial Stadium on the night before last Saturday's game between Newton and Waltham. There is such a thing as youthful exuberance—and there is such a thing as rowdyism. In all probability the Waltham youths responsible for the deed felt called upon to retaliate for the quarts of orange paint which coated the Waltham Athletic field fences a year ago. We cannot condone either offence. Wilful defacing ago. We cannot condone either offence. Wilful defacing of property can by no means be called youthful exuberance —it is plain rowdyism. Enthusiastic expression is often a worth while means of letting off steam but the safety valve should keep it under control.

ELECTION CONTESTS

With the time for filing nomination papers for the coming city election expiring late today several contests are assured. In city elections the value of such contests cannot be measured. More interest among the voters and the casting of more votes make for more efficient government. In many cases the voters are called upon to choose from between two able candidates while in other contests some candidates are practically conceded victory before the election. Unless there is a close contest on the ballot oftentimes the little-known candidate has an opportunity to slip into office because of the lack of interest in the election. The greater degree of interest in an election the lesser the opportunity the selfish seeker has to win. The fewer candidates there are for personal aggrandizement the better it is for the city. sonal aggrandizement the better it is for the city.

THANKSGIVING

Next week we observe our annual festival of Thanksgiving Next week we observe our annual festival of Thanksgiving. The custom was originated by the Pilgrims who gave thanks for the harvests they had reaped after much travail in the early days of this country. We in this century do not know what hard times are as compared with what the early settlers went through. Many this year are out of work and are in need. Many of us have much to be thankful for. A little thought for the other fellow this Thanksgiving will go a long way toward relieving suffering and need. Help others to be thankful you are their friend.

ANOTHER STEP FORWARD

The recent gift of a respirator to the Newton Hospital by the Hospital Aid Association is another step in making our local hospital one of the leading institutions of its size.

Facts About Newton

While we do not ordinarily think of Newton, the Garden City of New England, as an industrial community, according to the last federal census report we are a very industrious people. Out of our population of 65,276 inhabitants, 77,443 are engaged in some The largest single group, 3,790 works.

habitants, 27,443 are engaged in some gainful occupation, of which number 9,659 are women.

Unlike the great manufacturing cities and towns of the Commonwealth, there is no one predominating industry absorbing a majority of our people in the building industry and 1,971 men in the professions. However, the 824 women coressions.

ABOUT TOWN

By Edw. H. Powers

Edward J. Healey of Lexington street, Auburndale, departed yesterday morning for New York enroute on his annual winter tour of the West Indies. He will go to Miami, thence to Nassau, Ponce, Porto Rico, British Honduras and Havana, where he will spend most of the winter. Traveling keeps Mr. Healey young. At 79, he is as spry as ever.

A leading physician of Newton suggested that the GRAPHIC call attention to the many children in this country who are blinded as a result of dangerous toys. The greatest number of victims result from the sale and use of air rifles. Every year, following the Christmas season, boys and girls are blinded as a result of being shot by some boy who has been given an air rifle as a present. Pop-guns, though seemingly harmless, also can be proved to have caused many accidents. Boys, tiring of shooting a cork, held by a string, insert small stones, beads and dirt in pop-guns.

Toy hows and arrows have caused.

Toy bows and arrows have caused many cases of blindness. No one thinks of the danger involved until some child is injured. Darts, sling-shots and toy airplanes that fly have also been responsible for many eye injuries. And bean-blowers can be included in the list. Parents who buy such toys for their children are jeopardizing the safety of other children.

Roger J. Gardner, a well known Newton resident has built up a reputation as one of Greater Boston's most progressive and leading lumber dealers. For many years a salesman in Metropolitan Boston, selling lumber and building materials to a large clientele which included contractors, builders and home owners, Mr. Gardner established himself as a friend to his many customers. He is now managing his own business, the Dedham Lumber Company, This company, under his supervision is rapidly becoming known as a modern, trustworthy concern. Persons can submit their building, remodelling and repair problems and be assured of prompt, honest and expert service. Mr. Gardner will take care of all details and thus relieve his customers of much worry. His promptness in keeping appointments and getting things done has caused him to be characterized as "Johnny on the Spot." Persons who have home improvements to make should take advantage of Mr. Gardner's experience and knowledge.

William L. Tisdel, Newton distric William L. Tisdel, Newton district reporter for the BOSTON GLOBE has an exhibition of pictorial photography which is being featured with an exhibit loaned by the Harvard Society for Contemporary Art at the Fine Arts Theatre in Loew's State Theatre Building, Norway street and Massachusetts avenue, Boston. Nearly three dozen of Mr. Tisdel's photographic prints are hung in the foyer and lobby of the little theatre. The subjects include landscapes, portraiture and architectural detail.

Things are looking more and more serious in Manchuria. If Russia shall enter into this fray and eventually other European nations become embroiled, we shall hear, of course, the argument that this country must also get into the carnage "To make the world safe for democracy." It would be really too bad, however, if this country should become a participant in another World War. According to present plans industries as well as men would be conscripted. And with certain big industries making munitions, we would probably be deprived of the cellophane wrappers which have made cigarettes, cigars and countless other articles more free from germs.

With appeals being made constantly for donations to the fund for the relief of the unemployed in Newton, what good reason can be given for the employment of a man who was not a resident of Newton by one of the city departments?

The cost of compulsory liability insurance in 1932 will not bother those automobile owners in Newton who register their cars in other States to avoid paying the cost of insurance and the excise tax. Newton police should co-operate with the Registry of Motor Vehicles in apprehending these violators of the automobile laws.

The court room in the old police building at West Newton will prob-ably, within the next few weeks, be converted into quarters where unemployed men may gather while waiting for some job to turn up. The old police building will be used by the Mayor's Relief Committee for offices, clothing distribution and its other needs.

trades vie for second place with the men. There are 1,983 men absorbed in the building industry and 1,971 men in the professions. However, the $24 women engaged in professional work far outbalance the 49 women engaged in the building trades. These women engaged in professional work doubtless account for quite a share of those who take the trains leaving Newton stations every week day morning.

The remainder are fairly evenly distributed over a large number of classifications of work. Manufacturing accounts for 2,217 men and 1,037 women spread over eleven general lines. The 178 of these engaged in the leather industry as well, as other lines not represented in Newton business, indicates something of the extent to which our people travel to Boston and other cities to earn their livelihood.

The following figures taken from the census table are also interesting as they throw still further light upon the wide diversification of lines of employment of Newton people. Insurance and real estate accounts for 1,066, printing and publishing for 485, iron and steel for $25, and even agriculture claims 634 farmers and 12 farmer effects. Japan has been sending heavy gold shipments through San Francisco for deposit to her credit here. This puzzles Finance, but should not.

For buying in America Japan must have gold, and therefore Japanose gold is coming here. Japan will want many things if war starts on a big scale, and must use gold in this market.

In Europe the 1914 war was on its way before the world realized it. The new war in Asia, involving China, Japan and Russia, is on its way, and the world does not know it.

Here is the thing that we be sure of—however much radio may be effected by the weather, especially by the thunderstorm, no element of the weather is affected in turn by radio. This is being done by the British Air Ministry. The British Government takes the initiative, not leaving to private enterprise that which is most important to national safety.

Two things this country needs could and should have, wheat at a dollar a a bushel and silver at a dollar an ounce. A dollar an ounce for silver would be a ratio of twenty-two to one, since gold is "worth" twenty-two dollars an ounce.

The existing ratio is above sixty to one, although gold production is actually only thirteen to one, as compared with silver. with silver.

President Hoover, Mr. Mellon and others that would like the Republican party to remain in power are invited to consider the "wheat at a dollar" program.

If the President consults bankers, even as intelligent a financier, as Eugene Meyer, Junior, of the Federal Reserve, he will probably see shaking of heavy heads. But not all bankers are unable to realize that cornering gold by France and this country is responsible for industrial and commorning news, should be available for

It is a source of irritation to a passenger who has paid 10 cents to find himself obliged to squeeze into a half-seat when employes in uniform are riding free and spread all over the best seats. This is not a remote instance. You can see it every day. Now then, the Elevated has revealed for a number of years past that there is little of the old-time discipline. The great Nebulae are receding from us at a speed that would worry you, if exact figures were supplied. The universe, it seems, is a bubble, but, fortunately, it exploded some trillons of years ago, so we need not go through that again. We are living on fragments left after the explosion.

When I get sick of the Elevated I can take the train.

Looking for Trouble

There was a parade passing. One of those military pageants which thrill you by the marching, by the waving of flags and by the stirring band music. A friend and I were gazing intently at the marchers when our attention was attracted to one of the dexterous drum majors. You must have noticed, if you view parades at all, that most of the drum majors take it pretty easy and merely beat time by lifting their baton up and down in rhythmic fashion.

Once in a great while there is an expert who twirls his baton as fast as an electric fan. First in one hand and then the other he keeps it revolving with amazing skill. Now and then he tosses it in the air but never fails to catch it. A certain drum major of this latter type was doing his stuff in front of the State House on Beacon street. My friend selzed me by the arm as the fellow passed and said, "Let's cut across the Common and see him again when the parade passes along Tremont street."

The idea seemed a bit odd, but I

The idea seemed a bit odd, but I was feeling good natured and so we ambled down the Park-street mall. Again we saw this accomplished stick-slinger perform his cleverest stunts. Then my friend proposed that we run across the Common again and catch another glimpse of the drum major on Boylston street near Park Square. "What for?" I ased, a trifle peevishly. "You've seen him twice. Isn't that enough?"

"No," came the reply, "I shan't be

We Can't Fail Now

Several readers have expressed the fear that the annual Red Cross roll-call is going to slip by this year along with those things we'd like to do but can't afford. I dare say this splendid organization will feel the pinch to some extent but I cannot convince myself that Newton will be one of those cities to fail to perform its share. By allowing ourselves to drop this most important cause we will break one of our few good habits. Moreover, we will cause disappointment to the earnest men and women, whom we regard as our foremost citizens because of their untiring efforts and personal sacrifices. If they can put in their time and energy we should at least be willing to put in a dollar.

Alleges Distemper Is Spread by Human Race

When a man bites a dog— But, ac-cording to a report of Dr. Charles Nicolle to the French Academy of Sci-ences, man is biting the dog rather seriously—by serving as a reservoir for the dreaded distemper which kills Doctor Nicolle found that serum from the blood of human beings in noculated with the distemper virus produced the disease in puppies, while man was immune. Animals serve as carriers for numerous human diseases earriers for numerous human diseases—rats for bubonic plague, cattle for tuberculosis, etc. This is one of the first cases on record where it is shown that man may be the carrier of an animal disease.

Doctor Nicollet interprets his find ings as showing that the human race was subject to the distemper virus long before the canines and through the ages developed immunity to it. Now man contracts the disease only in such an attenuated form that there are no recognizable symptoms. dog has not had time to develop this natural immunity.

Explorers Have Mapped

Out Old Mother Earth Are there any more great rivers left anywhere on the globe for man to ex-plore? Only a little more than fifty years ago bold adventurers of a half dozen nations were plunging into the depths of Africa, not to be heard from again for months and years, and perhaps never to emerge at all. Burton and Speke, Grant and Baker, Stanley, Kandt and Baumann, and a hundred more were seeking to find the source of the Nile. Conversely, others were trying to unriddle the puzzle of the Lualaba, the mighty river which flowed in central Africa, going nobody knew whither. It was Stanley who re-vealed the unsuspected magnitude of that river system and succeeded after almost incredible bardships in fello amost increable hardships in follow-ing it to its mouth. It and the Congo were one, but the Congo then had been traced only a hundred miles inland from the Atlantic. But after all is said, what marvel can compare with the wonder of the Mississippi as it carried Marquette below the mouth of the Ohio and La Salle all the way to the gulf? A few more years and mer will be longing for new planets to

"Appetite" and "Hunger"
There is a common belief that appe-ite and hunger are the same thing, yet the two are different. Scientists have definitely localized hunger as a function of the stomach, and find that the contraction of an empty, or nearly empty, stomach is the source of hun-ger pains. As the stomach is filled ger pains. As the stomach is filled and the walls are expanded hunger dis-appears. Appetite has been found to emanate from the mouth and throat area and is influenced by previous tastes or odors of food. Pavlov, the Russian physiologist, defines appetite as the flowing of digestive juices aroused by the memory of food. The familiar watering of the mouth at the

Pioneer Railroad Trip Impressed New Yorkers

For four days, after reading the and ouncement that the DeWitt Clinton would undertake a passenger run the full fifteen-mile length of the road, the burghers of the Hudson valley blckered. Some said the notion was absurd; some said they would keep an open mind.

Then September 24, 1831, arrived. Conductor John T. Clark, first passenger railroad conductor in the North, cotled a tin horn as signal to the en gineer to start, and the DeWitt Clinton, with a three-car train rocking bemind it, was off on the first trip over the entire route from Albany to Sche nectady.

It was the beginning of railroading in New York state and the pioneer was the Mohawk & Hudson railroad, original unit of the New York Central line The engine had no headlight, no bell, o whistle, no spark arrester in the stack, no cab.

But it got close up to twenty miles an hour with three coaches and did better than that on the slight downgrade. Today's electric locomotives do sixty miles an hour with a thousandton train.

Cures for Various Ills An ancient cure for toothache was to leave an offering of meat on a stone. Whatever bird took the food away assumed also the burden of the complaint. Almost incredibly childish was that procedure for removing a stye from the eye. All that was needstye from the eye. All that was needed here was to push one end of a stick in the fire, point the blazing end towards the affected eye, and whirl it round rapidly in a circle, repeating "Go back, go back, stye." An old fisherman persisted that he had seen this cure, and that it actually worked. Hiccup was quite simply cured by accusing the patient of theft, but a stiff

The great amphitheater at Rome known as the colosseum consisted originally of three arcaded stories of stone and an upper gallery of wood. The upper gallery was later rebuilt of stone. It was elliptical in plan with its long axis 615 feet and its short axis 510 feet. The arena was 281 feet long and 177 feet wide. The seating capacity of the colosseum was probably between 40,000 and 50,000, although some authorities put the figure as high as 70,000. Though it was the largest of the Roman arenas, it has been exceeded in size by more than one modern amphitheater. its long axis 615 feet and its shor

Wonderful Meteoric Shower

The meteoric shower which occurred in the enry morning of November 13, 1833, is thought to have been the most brilliant ever recorded. It is the show-ter usually referred to as the "falling of the stars." It began about midof the stars." It began about midnight and lasted until dawn, and was visible more or less over half the earth, including North America, but not France. The number seen at Boston was estimated at 250,000 or more. The United States naval observatory states that this stream of meteors was supposed to be the result of the disintegration of Temple's comet, which was not seen when last due in 1900.

To Ireland for Sunsets

The sunsets seen from the western coast of Ireland are accounted the most famous in the world, not only by the Irish, but by American tourists, who cannot help adding to the glory of the scene by imagining their hom land in the heart of the golden West. Stand on the strand at, say Bartrau, the pretty little village near Murrisk, and watch the ball of fire slipping down to rest behind Achill, with al the tumbling hills ablaze at their sum-mits with the borrowed light, and you will admit that the Irish know how to arrange their sunsets. RED CROSS RELIEF IS WIDE-SPREAD

RED CROSS RELIEF IS WIDESPREAD

It is interesting to note in connection with the annual roll call of the American Red Cross that aside from handling 62 disasters in 31 States of this country, the Red Cross, during 1931, extended relief in no less than a dozen disasters abroad.

These operations were under the direction of the Insular and Foreign service of the National organization which cooperates with National Red Cross societies in over 50 other nations. Earthquakes, floods, typhoons and drought were the principal factors which contributed to the suffering relieved by the society.

Managua, Nicaragua, still smarting from the shock of last spring's ravaging earthquake, was among the most serious of the year's foreign calamities. Before the smoke from the flames which followed the tremors had cleared away, Ernest J. Swift, assistant director of insular and Foreign Operations, was en route to the scene of the tragedy by train and airplane. A program of rehabilitation was launched and maintained for months. That operation alone cost the American Red Cross approximateily $125,000. The society's policy of encouraging the victims to return to a self-sustaining basis at the earliest possible date prevented further expenditures and also resulted in preservation of the self-reliance of those affected.

Other calamities requiring assistance, chiefly in the form of finances,

The Community Service Club is to sponsor a series of six Book Talks by Mrs. Bond to be held in the Unitarian Church Parlor on alternate Tuesday mornings at 10 o'clock, beginning November 24th. She note. The price of this series of talks is $2.50, and members of the Club and their friends will be welcome.

Classes in Elementary, Intermediate, and Advanced French have been formed, with Madame Badger, of the Carroll School, as teacher who brings to the classes a knowledge and charm which makes them distinctly worth-while.

Newton Community Club

The Thursday meeting, November The Thursday meeting, November 12th, of the Newton Community Club was very interesting. Mr. Edward Goodnow, of the Copley Theatre, gave a short talk on the new ideas for better plays. He urged the Club members to come and see for themselves the great improvement which has been made in the type of plays at the Copley.

Mrs. Carl Thornquist, a member of the Newton Community Club, sang three songs, playing her own accompaniment. The three selections were: "Gypsy Trail," by Galloway; "And Ye Shall Walk in Silk Attire." an original composition by Mrs.

"And Ye Shail Walk in Silk Attire." of November in the year one thousand an original composition by Mrs. Thornquist; and an encore, "Yous Dansez, Marquise." by Lemaire. A sale of Christmas cards followed. Tables with groups of fruits and vegetables were displayed.

At the close of the meeting a social hour followed. Mrs. Ray Eusden, Mrs. Chester Drummond, Mrs. E. E. Batchelder, and Mrs. Clarence Moore presided at the tea table.

Newton Highlands Woman's Club

The American Home committee, of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club. Mrs. Harold W. Drew, chairman, sponsored a Style Show by Mrs. Sally Wheeler, in the Parish House of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, on Friday afternoon, the 13th, at 2:30 o'clock. Dresses and costume jewelry were from the Sally Wheeler Shop: the hats were lent by Mrs. Florence O. Godsoe, and the stockings by Mrs. Hazel Ruby, all members of the Club.

Mrs. Rodney A. Parker rendered very artistically three piano numbers: "In Autumn," by Moskowski; "Romance," by Schutt; and "Vienna Dance," by Friedman-Gartner. Mrs. John F. Wostrel, Soprano soloist at St. Paul's Church, was very pleasing in her solos: "Who Is Sylvia," by Schubert; "A Spirit Flower," by Campbell-Tipton; and "Homing," by Del Riego. Following the entertainment tea was served in the Crypt.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

The Art Exhibit, of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, which opened November 9th, with a tea, proved to be most interesting. An unusual collection of prints and aquatints by old Masters had been assembled, with splendid examples by van Ostade Rembrandt, Goya and others. Miss Katherine Per Lee Schiefer, who has made a special study of prints and engravings, gave a most illuminating and helpful talk, showing particularly how, in order to understand the work of Goya, one must have an appreciation of the background of Spanish history at that time and of the depravity of court life, which is satirized. The dinner on Thursday evening, the 12th, in honor of Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole was one of the most successful events in the history of the Club. About two hundred guests in evening dress sat down to dinner in the large auditorium, and later two hundred more attended the lecture by Mrs. Poole. Mrs. John F. Capron, president of the Club, introduced Mrs. Frank H. Stewart, who served as chairman of the occasion. She acted as toastmistress, and introduced the distinguished guests, each in turn paying glowing tribute to Mrs. Poole. Among the qualities which were emphasized were her keenness, her ability and daring, and her kindly human attitude, which always leaves a community feeling more kindly as a result of her visit. Mrs. Carl L. Schrader, president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, said that former Governor Cox characterized Mrs. Poole as quick in thought and action, and that Mr. Robert Lincoln O'Brien said she was eminently capable of taking the helm and of helping to place women in the high place which is rightfully theirs.

Other speakers were Mrs. Arthur D. Potter, Massachusetts director of the General Federation of Women's Clubs; Miss Emile Avery, well-known Lecturer; and Miss Alice F. Titus, of Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Samuel N. Braman, president of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Samuel N. REMINISCENCES BY AN OLD RESIDENT

To the Editor of The Graphic:

To the Editor of The Graphic:

Now that the corner stone of the new City Hall has been laid and Newton is to have a civic center which can hardly be surpassed for architectural worth and beauty of setting, I am prompted to ask how many of our residents know that the old and outgrown City Hall was remodelled from what had been the West Newton Congregational Church. The fact is recorded in Prof. Rowe's excellent "Tercentenary History of Newton," page 90, that the church was bought for $1800 in 1849 and converted into a Town Hall, serving in that day to promote the unity of the scattered sections of Newton, much the same as our new City Hall, in the well expressed thought of Mayor Weeks, is to be "a monument to civic unity."

to be "a monument to civic unity."

It happened that I first learned of the genesis of our ancient City Hall many years ago, at a hearing at the State House on a petition of residents of the so-called Morse Field district of Watertown for annexation to Newton. This was the first occasion at which I was employed as stenographic reporter, so that many of the incidents impressed themselves vividly on my memory.

incidents impressed themselves vividing on my memory.

Residents of Newton Corner, at any rate, if not those of our entire city, are aware that a large slice of land south of Charles River, coming within a few hundred feet of Nonantum Square, is included within the bounds of Watertown. In 1885 a group of residents in that section, led by the late George C. Dunne, L. Edwin Chase, Sr., James H. Earle and John W. Tuttle, petitioned the Legislature for annexation to Newton. The petitioners were represented by Fred H. Williams, now of Brookline, and the late Charles T. Gallagher, while Watertown's interests were in charge of Town Counsel Sullivan with the late John B. Goodrich of Newton as senior counsel.

The active petitioners have now undoubtedly passed away and the present inhabitants of the district, which meantime has grown and flourished, seem content to remain identified with Watertown. Probably few of them know that the protection of Watertown's fishing rights in Charles River was the excuse for the peculiar boundary line, while the fish piers that the fathers of Watertown thought so vital to the town in its infancy faded into oblivion a century or more ago.

COMPLAINS OF WET CROSSINGS

Editor of the Graphic

Editor of the Graphic,
Dear Sir:
The crossings on Washington street at Hovey, Thornton, Channing and Peabody streets, in stormy weather are always the wettest places on the street instead of being the dryest.
The drains do not seem to take care of the water as they should, with the consequence that there are good sized

It is hoped that when Washington street is resurfaced this condition will be remedied.

structures, built simultaneously by the City of Newton and County of Middlesex, have been long needed. The new police headquarters of this city and the new district court replace the antiquated, unsightly wooden building built a couple of generations ago for use as a school house and used for many years as a combined police headquarters and court house. They will compensate to a large degree for the removal of the City Hall from the centre of West Newton, as they certainly will present a far more pleasing appearance than the old building they supplant and the present City Hall.

The two new structures, quite similar in design and size, are of brick with artificial stone trim. Simple and dignified architecturally, with large porch effects and a long balustraded terrace which extends the full length of the two buildings, they combine utilitarian advantages with artistic effect. Each building cost about $155.000, and the furnishings for each cost about $5000. James H. Ritchie and his associates, architects, of Boston, designed the buildings. Mr. Ritchie is a well known resident of this city. The court house was built by John W. Duff of West Newton, the police headquarters by the John McDonald Construction Company of this city. The new court house will provide ample accommodations for the hold-ing of court sessions in this city, prop-

No one has worked harder to bring about the erection of the new court house than has Francis W. Sprague, clerk of the Newton Court. Newton And Brookline | Will Not Oppose Play Scoreless Tie

In 35th Annual Football Game Between Close Rivals

The Newton High School football team ended its 1931 season yesterday morning with a scoreless game with Brookline, 0-0, in the annual game between the two rivals at the latter's field. Newton threatened many times but on every occasion Brookline managed to stem the tide. By failing to score a victory over eleven wound up the season in a tie with their rivals for second place in with their rivals for second place in the Suburban league with championship honors going to Somerville for the fourth consecutive year. With the exception of the first period Newton had the edge on the Brookline team, rolling up eleven first downs to six. Brookline never had possession of the ball inside Newton's 40 yard line. Brookline's lateral pass from Kaplan to McGrall or the reverse was an ever potent threat however, but neither of the Brookline fast stepping backs could get away into clear territory.

Newton was without the services of its ace, Warren Huston, who sat on the sidelines wrapped in blankets and nursing an injury to his back. It was irony of fate that rendered Huston hors de combat, as the injury were received in the final play of Huston hors de combat, as the injury was received in the final play of the final Newton practice scrimmage of the season last week Friday. Palmer York, intermediate varsity star was being tried out as a ball carrier with the varsity and Huston was interfering for him when he received a kick which cracked a couple of the small bones in his back to lay him up for a while. The injury is not regarded as especially serious and he is expected to get back into athletics after a rest.

STATE PAYS LESS TAXES

Last Friday a settlement was made between the Commonwealth and the City of Newton on tax accounts. The amount owed the State by the City was $403,752.82. The amount due the city by the State on income taxes and other taxes was $550,157.53; a balance in the city's favor of $146,404.82. Last year the amount received by Newton from the State was $301,719.09. The decrease is largely due to smaller incomes during the past year.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

WINTER SPORTS TEAMS TO BEGIN PRACTICE SHORTLY

Winter sports teams at the high

Winter sports teams at the high school will begin practice shortly with the basketball team already having gotten a start on the hockey and track teams. For the past two weeks Coach Frank Simmons has had all candidates for the basketball team except those who have been playing football working out in the gymnasium. Monday all candidates will begin daily sessions of practice in preparation for the coming season which opens on the 6th of January.

The intermediate and junior varsity teams will be handled by George Rohrbough and Walter Taylor, members of the faculty.

Coach Simmons will have five lettermen as the nucleus of his squad which will probably play with a captain appointed or elected for each game. The five veterans on hand are Warren Huston, a forward, George Gulian, Bob Patterson, and Frank Vassalotti, backs, and George Jones, a centre. The first four are all football players and instead of enjoying a few days' rest at this time are expected to turn their attention to basketball immediately. The entire squad will probably get a week or more rest during the Christmas holidays. Captain Balley, Perry Eirod, Bob Seaver, Frank Wetherbee and Weidig, mainstays of last year's outfit have graduated or are ineligible under the five-year rule along with Quinlan, Doucette, Yanco and Dyer, other 1930 letter winners.

With the veterans mentioned as a nucleus Coach Simmons will have several from last year's intermediate squad to round out a team which bids fair to offer stiff opposition to all opponents on the schedule which will be approved and announced at next week's meeting of the athletic committee.

The track team under Coach Don Enoch who will be assisted again this be approved and announced at next week's meeting of the athletic committee.

The track team under Coach Don Enoch who will be assisted again this year by Charlie Considine has lost many of its stars who made last year's record outstanding in the sport in Newton's history. Captain Milton Green is at Exeter academy where he is preparing for Harvard while other members of the team are scattered here and there. Of those left Captain Jim Cahill and Douglas Sloane are the outstanding. Cahill will carry the burden in the 300-yard run and as anchor on the relay while Doug Sloane, with valuable experience last year, is expected to make a dash man to rank along with Walter Holmes, Carl Pescosolido and Bob Ewing. In the longer runs Connolly and Fitgerald, point scorers with the cross-country team this fall, are regarded as the foremost possibilities. For the hurdles and jumps it is hoped some good material will be developed from the practice sessions which will start early next month.

Coach Dr. Martin of the hockey team has but two lettermen available for the hockey team in Jackson Skillings and Dick Kelley. Along with this pair as a nucleus are several members of last year's intermediate varsity who are well-known in athletics. Bob Buell, Phil Giles, Jim Goodbar, Alexander Kevorkian and Fred Perkins, all on the varsity football squad this fall, won letters with Coach Sanborn's ice team in 1931 and are available this season. Dr. Martin plans to hold conditioning and shooting practice early this month as usual on the broad sidewalk space between the old drill shed and the Classical school building.

MID CLEATS AND PADS DETAILED STORY OF FINAL GAME OF 1931 SEASON

In the seven games in which eight Newton opponents figured yesterday a curious coincidence took place—three resulted in scoreless ties—three resulted in 20 to 0 scores—and the other game had a 7 to 0 outcome—the scoreless ties were between Newton and Brookline, Somerville and Rindge and Woburn and Winchester—the 20 to 0 games were Everett's victory over Chelsea—Waltham's loss at Brockton's hands—and Cambridge Latin's defeat by B. C. High—the 7 to 0 win was scored by Melrose over Arlington—last Saturday three of Newton's opponents played—Somewille line. MR. LOCKETT WITHDRAWS

As we were about to go to press we received the announcement of the withdrawal of Mr. Joseph F. Lockett as a candidate for re-election to the School Committee from Ward 6.

Mr. Lockett who has been a member of that body for the Mr. Lockett who has been a member of that body for the past six years the last of which he has served as chairman, was being opposed by Prof. Kirtley F. Mather, noted scientist and educator. Mr. Lockett feels that no good purpose would be served by continuing the contest at the polls. From a personal viewpoint this may be true as Mr. Lockett has been a most faithful and efficient public servant. On the surface there seems to be no other good reason for Mr. Mather's candidacy other than the fact that he is outstanding in his profession. From the impersonal viewpoint we cannot help but From the impersonal viewpoint we cannot help feel that a contest for office between two qualified candidates makes for more efficient government, as we stated last week. In this instance the voters should have been asked to choose between a successful customs lawyer with a business training and an educator and teacher with a scientific and analytical and an educator and teacher with a scientific and analytical training.

Mr. Lockett has made an enviable record as a member of the school committee. He has been absent from but seven meetings out of the eighty-six which have been held since he was elected to office. He has made many important motions, endorsed by his colleagues with few exceptions, for maintaining the Newton school system on the high plane which has brought it international reputation. There has not been a single matter come before the committee in which he has not taken a keen interest often at much personal sacrific. More men of his type are needed for this important work.

c. More men of his type are needed for this important work. Prof. Mather, we have no doubt, will fill the office competently. He will bring to the committee much of value. Our one regret is that Mr. Lockett and Prof. Mather cannot serve on the school committee together.

IT IS TIME TO ACT

The more one drives about the city the more one realizes the need of more playground space. Although Newton would seem to have many acres of land for playground use there are many of our children playing in the streets. The more children playing in the streets the greater danger to life and limb. Steps should be immediately taken to provide playground space for the children of the coming years. At the present time land values are much lower than for some years. In Newtonville the situation is getting serious. Newton and West Newton should also receive immediate attention. Now is the time to act before the available land is taken up.

FIRST SIGHT OF THE AKRON

Residents of this section of the country were thrilled at their first sight of the Akron on Monday as it drifted majestically among the clouds. With nothing to compare it with except a solitary scout plane hovering around, it was difficult to realize that it is the largest lighter-than-air craft in the world, considerably larger than the Los Angeles. Although in itself a graceful messenger in peace and undoubtedly a ruthless weapon of war it would be easy prey for a squadron of combat planes. We trust that the need will never arise for using the Akron as a destructive agency.

AN HONOR TO THE PROFESSION

President Hoover has turned to a product of the newspaper profession in his appointment of the head of the Tariff Commission. Robert Lincoln O'Brien has been an honor to the profession which he represented for eighteen years as editor of the Boston Hevald. A broad thinker, gifted with tact and acumen, coupled with a wide knowledge of industry and business, Mr. O'Brien will serve the country well in his new position.

MAKE YOUR PLANS NOW TO VOTE

Giving alms in response to appeals made by seedy individuals who accost one on the street is a common experience for men these days. It is considered by many a quicker way out of an embarrassing situation, although shered by many a quicker way out of an embarrassing situation, although all seem agreed it is a doubtful form of charity. For the past year it has been plainly evident that a larger number of "touch artists" have been operating in the big cities. With so much talk regarding unemployment the prospective giver is disposed to pause and listen. It may be my imagination, but it has struck me that some of those who have held me up have really been victims of misfortune. At the same time I acknowledge that many "bums" are taking advantage of conditions to get more out of a sympathetic public. This, by the way, is the best kind of proof that all money for unemployment relief and welfare, work cheal a head of the same time of the same and the same time of the same and the same time of t all money for unemployment relief and welfare work should be disbursed through a recognized agency such as the Mayor's Relief Committee or the local Welfare Bureau.

the Mayor's Relief Committee or the local Welfare Bureau.

Having heard so many hard luck stories from strangers I am getting a trifle hardened. It may be because the circumstances set forth by the supplicants are strikingly similar in detail. When anything original is heard you are not apt to forget it.

Within a week I was approached by a young man who asked if he could say a few words to me. I stopped, which was a signal for him to begin. He did so, saying, "This isn't a touch. I don't want money, but I do want to say that people shouldn't worry these days, for worry makes you look old. Stay young as long as you can and if you don't worry you'll die young no matter how long you live."

moral sentiments, but I thought that a you might be interested in this little sentence: When Mr. Nathaniel was a boy the Waltham boys would frequently come over here to fight with the Squash Enders as West Newton at hundred or more would come and not find more than 20 to fight with."

Mr. Lucht tells me that he informed the Gary librarian that "We still have angs in Newton, although we are not saying they come from Waltham or which Mr. Lucht refers are those who swoop down upon the main library one of its branches and make trouble for the assistant librarians. Of course they are composed exclusively of boys and the mischief they do, that's letting them down easily, is costly to the city. As for scraps between "gangs", they are not new. It happens every day, some of my most vivid recollections in loude warfare between "gangs" from Watertown and Brighton and those of Newton Corner. It seemed part of a boy's inevitable experience to find himself mussed up after a scrimmage. Woth the boys of all ages play football, a great amount of excess "pep" is disposed of in a way that is much more legitimate, if not as exciting.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEETS

At a meeting of the School Committee on Monday night Chairman Lockett moved that the wire fence at the grounds of the Mason School on Beacon street, Newton Centre, be extended 100 feet to prevent the children rushing out onto Beacon street after school sessions. The committee voted to investigate a request from Waban residents, received through Mayor Weeks, that additional land be acquired at the Angier School, between the school and the railroad bridge.

The committee received a ruling from City Solicitor Bartlett that private school pupils cannot ride in the special busses which are provided for public school pupils. These busses are hired by the city to transport public school pupils and the owners of these busses cannot be compelled to carry other children. Also, the city cannot legally contract with a bus owner for the transportation of other than public school pupils. This ruling followed a request received by the committee from John Janse that children attending the parochial school of the Sacred Heart parish at Newton Centre be carried from Oak Hill in the special bus which transports the public school pupils.

Bids were received from both the pupils.

Bids were received from both the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway and S. J. McNeily of Brookline for the transportation of children of the Charlemont section. Each bid was for $5 daily. Secretary George Kellar was authorized to use his judgment in awarding this contract.

The resignation of Florence Cook, a teacher in the Weeks' Junior High School, was received.

Another "dream cabin" has been erected at Camp Mary Day. For a number of years two of the troops in Newton Centre have earned and saved money hoping that some time it would reach a large enough amount to do something special for all the Newton Centre Girl Scouts. The money was turned over to the Newton Centre Troop Committee and that Committee with the Captains decided that the girls would love better than anything else a cabin of their very own at Camp Mary Day.

This cabin was erected this fall and was dedicated on Sunday afternoon of this week. It nestles under the cedars on the ridge just, a short way from the Newton Highlands' Cabin. It is most attractive and sets beautifully into its woodsy surroundings with its weathered log walls and moss green roof.

The dedication service was very impressive and the large number of Girl Scouts, parents, and friends who attended it will remember the lovely ceremony and the beautiful summer-like day on which it was held. After gathering around the house, Mrs. Thorogood, Chairman of the Newton Centre Troop Committee, presented the key of the cabin to Mrs. Redfield. Commissioner of the Newton Girl Scouts. Mrs. Redfield accepted it in the name of the Local Council and returned it to her with a permit to use the cabin, always bearing in mind the standards of camping set by the Camp Committee, for a period of 99 years when she said she hoped it would be renewed for another 99.

Mrs. Frank A. Day who was Commissioner for the Newton Council for ten years and who gave Camp Mary Day to the Newton Girl Scouts. was present and the girls gave her a rousing cheer.

One if the girls read a poem entitled "Blessing the House" which was most appropriate for this dedication. A fire was then lighted in the cabin and each patrol leader put a fagot on—making a wish as she entered the door. A tree was planted in front of the cabin and the "Tree Song" was sung as the girls put the earth around it.

Then came the Goodnight Circle which was lead by Miss Freeman, known to the camp girls as "Moth sung as the girls put the earth around it.

Then came the Goodnight Circle which was lead by Miss Freeman, known to the camp girls as "Mother Carey," who said that she hoped this little cabin would house many good times and that its rafters would ring with songs and laughter, but she also hoped that those who sat around its hearth and felt the warmth of the camp spirit which is so dear to everyone who goes to Camp Mary Day—the spirit of love, friendliness, and service.

After the goodnight circle, everyone

After the goodnight circle, everyone had a chance to inspect the cabin and then were invited to go to the main cabin where they enjoyed cocoa, coffee, and sandwiches which were provided by the Troop Committee. This is the second village cabin which has been erected at Camp Mary Day—the first one being the Pine Cone Cabin which was built by the Newton Highlands Girl Scouts. Both these cabins will be used spring and fall for overnight hikes by the troops of those villages and during the summer they will be used by the long-time camp.
